Welcome to Virgin Atlantic Flightstore

Virgin Atlantic Flightstore acts as an extension of Virgin Atlantic Airways Ltd and we are the preferred distribution method to the trade. We are operated by one of the UK's best-known consolidators, which means you can take advantage of our vast industry experience.

Just looking for flights for your customers? Need help organising a trip for a group? Perhaps you want to book something for two years in advance? Look no further. We have everything you need to help your customers travel the world.

Inclusive tour and seat only fares

We are the leaders in providing Inclusive Tour fares to the travel trade.

Compare fares ticketing deadlines live online - then pick the flight that works best for you and your client.

Book with no deposit, your fare is guaranteed - just come back and ticket before the ticketing deadline.

Out of Date Range

Book Out of Date Range flights for 2024!

We have guaranteed fares for Out of Date Range flights to Orlando, Tampa, the Maldives, and more, with availability throughout peak dates and school holidays.

We are the only consolidator that enables you to obtain guaranteed Virgin Atlantic fares to anywhere on their network.

Published

We offer published fares across the Virgin Atlantic route network.

For itineraries where there are no nett fares available (such as flights not originating in the UK) we can still offer published tariff fares.

Groups Market Place

We have created a new Groups system to make your lives easier – think organised, intuitive, responsive.

A new Groups Flights quoting tool, where you can manage all your Groups quotes in one place, keep track of any comments and questions to and from our team, and still receive handy deadline and deposit reminders.

To log in to Groups Market Place simply visit the Groups page on the website. You will see the log in area in the top right-hand corner.

InfiniteAPI

InfiniteAPI feeds all of Virgin Atlantic Flightstore's best nett fare content directly into your own back-office system or customer website.

InfiniteAPI combines all available airfares into a single source and displays them with real-time pricing and availability.

It has a range of customisable features and automations to streamline your processes and increase efficiency.

InfiniteCache Boost

InfiniteCache combines hundreds of searches on the best GDS fares from Aviate and delivers them to you via InfiniteAPI, allowing you to save time and win more business.

You can choose two ways of receiving InfiniteCache, depending on your business needs; by route and by flight.
