Schedule:

Virgin Atlantic continues to review its flying programme each day, with a reduced schedule of passenger services for essential travel operating between London Heathrow and New York-JFK, Los Angeles and Hong Kong, as well as cargo-only charters to transport vital medical supplies and support global supply chains. At present, our schedule remains as published on our website, with this being updated on a rolling weekly basis to reflect any new cancellations.

We continue to operate from Terminal 3 at London Heathrow airport until further notice.

Since our schedule is being updated frequently we urge all customers to check the status of their flight

Customers who are mid-trip away from home and who are not being supported by you should fill out our away from home form and we will be in touch with them directly with options.

Customers whose flights are cancelled will be contacted directly with an alternative option as long as we have contact information included in the PNR. Alternatively, please continue to make arrangements for your customers rebooking them in line with the applicable VSbulletin

Virgin Atlantic has made the decision to move most of its current scheduled services to cargo-only services from 20 April until 26 April.

The following scheduled services will move to cargo-only flights:

- London Heathrow - New York JFK from the 21st – 26th April
- London Heathrow - Hong Kong from the 20th – 26th April
- London Heathrow - Los Angeles from the 20th – 26th April

The Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) has provided Virgin Atlantic with special dispensation to carry cargo in the cabin as well as the cargo hold, so that we can carry even more essential goods, to ensure global supply chains keep running and transporting essential medical supplies into the UK at this time of crisis.

As of 16.30 on Thursday 9th April 2020, our schedule to 30 April 2020 is planned as below but this is subject to change without notice.
